

Nancy Rooker

Education

Junior Year Abroad — St. Andrews University, Scotland (1979-80)

B.A. English at Agnes Scott College (1981)

M.A. English at University of Virginia (1982)

Math Teaching/Tutoring Course with Persis Herold of the Math Center, Washington, D.C. (September, 1987-May, 1988)

Teaching Experience

First Baptist Church School, Shreveport, LA

Gifted and Talented elementary

High School World History and ninth grade English

Episcopal High School, Baton Rouge, LA

Classroom Teacher

Senior Composition

The Maret School, Washington, DC

Fourth grade classroom teacher

Home-Centered Education, Arlington, VA

Homeschooled two sons K-10th grade (all subjects until high school + Geometry & Advanced Algebra)

Designed math lessons for K through 2nd grade from Persis Herold lessons and other texts such as Developing Number Concepts Using Unifix Cubes

For grades 2-6 used University of Chicago's Everyday Math curriculum, supplemented by additional drills

Supportive tutor and homeschool administrator for two sons throughout high school

Other Work

Taught other homeschooled students (K-8th) in Charlotte Mason co-op in Arlington, VA (poetry, handicrafts, geography, and science)

Occasional tutoring for children of friends